

Friday: Day 1

- Meet your personal OAE Greeter at the Community Center. Your Greeter will escort you to your condo and review the information for the weekend.
- In your condo, your greeter has placed homemade dinner for tonight made by an OAE Volunteer
- Explore the beach, pools, Southport whatever

Saturday: Day 2

- Breakfast will be in your condo. Homemade by an OAE volunteer
- At a time you have arranged with your personal photographer (who should have contacted you prior to arrival), meet for a photo shoot of your family for you to take home. All photographers are OAE volunteers. All the pictures are yours, and there is no fee
- If you have selected one of these amenities, that can be part of Saturday or wait until Sunday:
 - Ferry Ride and Visit Fort Fisher Aquarium
 - Two hour boat ride with an OAE volunteer starting at the St. James Marina
 - Miniature Golf on Oak Island
- Lunch: you will have coupons which provide options or on your own
- Other activities to consider:

- St. James Beach Club is on Oak Island-right on the ocean. There is also a small pool, and beach equipment set aside just for OAE guests
- Seaside Pool in St. James is a family friendly pool with children and adult depths, as well as, a snack bar
- Visit Southport. Visitor packet information on Southport is in your binder
- Dinner: Coupons have been included for different venues, or go on your own to Southport or Oak Island

Sunday: Day 3

- Breakfast will be in your condo, again courtesy of an OAE volunteer
- While you need to be out of your condo by check out time, you have access to the beach and ocean in Southport, North Carolina
- Use your amenity option, if you didn't use it on Saturday
- You have access to the Beach Club and ocean all day
- Visit the Southport attractions
